

ABSENTEE VOTER BALLOT APPLICATION FORM

Occasionally, voters are away from the city on election day but they still want to vote in the election. To do this, the voter can request an absentee ballot by mail using forms provided by the city.

Each city determines when during the year that they will accept these requests. Some cities accept them six months before the election; other cities won't accept them until 30 days before the election. Check your city's election ordinance to find out when your city will accept requests for absent ballots. If your ordinance doesn't have this information, consider amending your ordinance to include it.

Below is a sample of an absentee ballot by mail request form.
